WILL. C. EMLER.

WEDDING BELLS.

Monday evening at 5 o'clock Mr.
Frank Zbrank and Miss Tonnie Dvorak were married at the Catholic church by Rev. Father Szymanski.
A large number of the friends of the young couple were present.
After the ceremony the wedding guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dvorak.

The young couple will go to house keeping at once. The bride is the sister of Mrs. Jos. Dvorak, and the groom has been in the employ of Wolters Bros. for nearly two years. The GAZETTE extends congratulations.

The entertainment afforded by Mr. and Mrs. Dvorak at their residence was heartily enjoyed by all present. The tables were loaded with good things to eat and drink and the guests were urged to do them full justice. The music furnished was excellent. Among those from a distance who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs.
Jos. Zbrank, the groom's parents, from Ellinger, Anton Berkofsky of Hallettsville, and others.

AN ADDITION.

Last week C. L. Williams purchased of G. Helneg eighty acres of land lying north of the creek north of town. The price paid was $40 per acre. Mr. Williams will sink an artesian well on the land and erect a resident house there for himself. Since making the purchase he has been besieged with offers to buy small parts of the land. It is not improbable that a number of resident houses will be erected there within the year.

AT PANAMA.

The latest letter from John Turk was dated Aspinwall, June 25th.
Aspinwall is at the entrance of the old abandoned Panama canal in Central America. John went down there several months ago from New Orleans. He took along a horse and saddle bought at St. Louis. It is said that he represents a big firm of horse traders of St. Louis. It was reported that John would land in New Orleans about the 20th of this month and would be home at once but at this writing he has not arrived. In his letters home he states that he was heartily sick of Panama and was anxious to get back to the States.

BAD WATER

The Yoakum papers are making war on the bad water furnished by the Water Works Co. of Yoakum, of which Mr. Green is manager.
The water is in a horrible condition and tastes like a mixture of vinegar, quinine and ipecac. The writer took a drink of it Sunday at the Herald office and it took him an hour to get the sickening taste out of his mouth. A mass meeting of citizens was called for Friday night last to protest against the horrible iniquity but did not prove a success.

THE FIRST BALE.

It was a long time coming but it finally got here. Our merchants had about given up hope and had concluded that there would be no first bale this year but these sad reflections were dissipated Friday evening when St. Janota of the vicinity of Nickel drove into town with a real sure enough bale on his wagon. He was greeted with loud acclamations and was presented with a barrel of flour as a premium by Wolters Bros., who purchased the bale at 7 1/2 cents. It weighed 512 pounds.
